

WELCOME TO "THE MERCANTILE" BY LUCIE HOFHEINS

Conoly Brooks remembers a rainy day when he parked outside and ducked into the Surety Title building at 136 W. Twohig to do business. He was aware that the title building has indoor parking for employees. As he waited in the lobby for his appointment he looked across the street and thought "I wonder if that vacant building at 135 West Twohig is large enough to include covered parking for employees?" This is how the vision for "The Mercantile" began.

The history on this structure started with construction of the original Sears and Roebuck Department Store in 1929. The retail chain store opened in 1931. Wood Motor Company and Used Cars (Ford Dealership) occupied the building from 1934 - 1941. The Western Wool and Mohair Company moved in in 1942. Additional businesses at this location included Harry's Food Store (1946) and Christians in Action (2007).

The property was donated to Downtown San Angelo, Inc., (DSA) in 2013. DSA, a Main Street organization, worked to find a developer that would restore the building and bring new life to this historic structure. A significant objective of the Main Street Program is Historic Preservation. This includes and Executive Director Del Velasquez to discuss purchase of the property. The Brooks' purchased the building at 135 W. Twohig on February, 2015 with plans to convert into office and retail space. Mr. Brooks stated that Downtown San Angelo, Inc. and The Bank & Trust were instrumental in helping him to launch the project.

activity that preserves buildings and their historic integrity, such as building rehabilitation; but also use of preservation tools and government policies supporting preservation; and preservation education that engages the community.

Conoly and his wife Heidi met with Downtown San Angelo Inc. Board President Brenda Gunter

Additionally Conoly credits Richard Round who insisted on maintaining the historic design of the original building to include the awnings, lighting sconces, doors and wall placement and height within the structure. Commendation also goes to the City of San Angelo Planning, Permits, Economic Development and Fire Marshall's divisions who provided guidance and assistance. The Brooks' also thank Dan Ripple,

And of course the construction crews who worked tirelessly throughout the process.

And the added perk - an indoor parking garage was incorporated at the rear of the building, providing ample parking spaces for businesses within. The renovation of this historic building also included maintaining the original wooden floors which Conoly says is what most people remember and ask most about when discussing the old Harry's Food Store.

Today the project, "The Mercantile" has been completed and all office and retail space has been leased. "The Mercantile" occupants Joe William Ross Law Office, MQI Land and Surveying, Jackson Walker, LLP and Stemmed Designs have brought twenty two new employees to the downtown area.

Conoly Brooks stated, "One of the proudest accomplishments of working on this project is that all of our available spaces were leased months before the construction was completed".

On March 16, 2017, to kick off the monthly Downtown Stroll, the historic Roosevelt Hotel sign was removed from atop the old building.

The Roosevelt Hotel Sign will be refurbished during the construction phase of the "Roosevelt Lofts". Once construction is completed the sign will be returned to its original location directly above the elevator shaft.

Developers Mike Biggerstaff and Steve Sorrells were on hand to oversee the procedure as they provided information to observers.

initiation of the Roosevelt Hotel project and Board President, Brenda Gunter and Executive Director Del Velasquez proudly joined in the celebration.

The historic building, will be called The Roosevelt Lofts upon completion of the project.

BREWS EWES & BBQ

We like to grill in Texas. And who doesn't savor some fire-pit smoked bar-b-que, lamb, served alongside a few cold brews? And that's how it began – a meaty discussion held with the promotions committee of Downtown San Angelo, Inc. (DSA). The inspiration for "Brews, Ewes and BBQ" was to create an event to take place in the heart of downtown paying homage to our West Texas heritage, traditions, and culture. With our history being "The Wool Capital of the World" adding lamb to the competition made good sense. That's how "Brews, Ewes and BBQ" began with our inaugural cook-off taking place October 7th-8th 2016, thanks to support from local sponsors and lamb sponsor Sterling Lamb and the hard work of the DSA board members and volunteers. Over 35 teams from all over the Lone Star State traveled to historic downtown San Angelo to compete in an event sanctioned by the International BBQ Cookers Association. The cook-off took place in the downtown stock yard area, spilling over into the Old Western Mattress Building, river bank parking lots and Bart DeWitt Park.

The cooks fired up their pits and began cooking Friday night in order to have their meat entrée's perfectly smoked and ready to turn in for judging at 11:00am Saturday. Hundreds of mouth-watering hungry folks showed up to sample ribs, brisket, chicken, beans, lamb and local brews with the competition's best cooks and brewers winning over $5,000.00 in cash prizes.

The first "Brews, Ewes and BBQ" was a "Ewe"mongous success and complimented other local events taking place on that Saturday including the Angelo State University Homecoming Parade, Lions Clubs Pancake Extraganza Breakfast, and the evening's West Texas Boys Ranch "Rockin' the Ranch" concert.

Mark your calendar and join us for the second annual "Brews, Ewes and BBQ" October 27th-28th. For more information, contact Downtown San Angelo, Inc. at: 325-655-2345.

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

What an incredible 2016 for downtown San Angelo and Downtown San Angelo, Inc.!

The lack of residential living in the central business district is moving towards reaching our goal to increase downtown living. The Roosevelt Hotel at 50 N. Chadbourne was purchased by Fireside Partners LLC to be developed. Upon completion the former hotel will become the Roosevelt Lofts. The transformation of this historic building into living space will be a first step in continuation of our number one goal of increasing the downtown residential population. Having people living downtown creates a dynamic that stimulates economic opportunities and draws new businesses to serve the needs of those who choose to live downtown.

Two major institutions with long histories in our community and downtown have expanded their presence in the central business district with new buildings. The 1st Financial Bank's new building at the corner of Concho Avenue and Koenigheim/Bryant Blvd. will create a gateway into historic downtown. Shannon Medical Center continues to grow and develop and has added a new $27 million 4 story Medical Office building.

What was originally the Coca-Cola warehouse is now the beautiful San Angelo Performing Arts Center. This creative repurposing of a building located at 82 Gillis Street was dedicated on September 8, 2016 and promises to be an entertainment destination for not only our community but all of West Texas and beyond.

Another key development that is changing the North Chadbourne corridor has been the purchase and development of nine (9) buildings between 12 and 38 N. Chadbourne by the David Mazur Construction Company. Within months of the purchase remodeling and restoring of the structures commenced. These refurbished buildings will bring new businesses and create employment opportunities within the downtown area.

The Historic Downtown Magazine released on March 24, 2017 will feature the transformation of 135 W. Twohig. Depending on which era you grew-up in or arrived in San Angelo you will either call it the Sears & Roebuck building, "the Old Harry's Food Store, or maybe "one of the Christian In Actions building". Today, it's simply called "The Mercantile". The building was donated to DSA, Inc. and sold to Conoly and Heidi Brooks who have renovated the building into office and retail space with indoor parking while maintaining the historic integrity of the historic building.

In 2016 we welcomed the following new business to downtown: Burlap and Paisley, Amaryllis, Angry Cactus, Casual Pint, Chadbourne Tavern, Chandler's Bar and Grill, Jesse Rose Mercantile, Peepsi's BBQ, Leo's Import, The SOCO Taphouse Company, If Walls Could Talk, All About You Barber & Beauty Salon, Paint & Sip, ARock Salon, The Latest Scoop, Solar CenTex, Coffee 101, The Turn and Warehouse 150.

We also added new sponsors for our Sheep Spectacular project: Surety Title, Stephen's Central Library, Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd, Henry's Diner, Market Street, West Central Wireless, KIDY FOX, Rio Concho Manor and Window Depot.

Working with our economic partners in 2017 will be another important priority. The San Angelo Chamber of Commerce Economic Development, the City of San Angelo Development Corporation, the Angelo State University - Small Business Development Center, Workforce Solutions, San Angelo Convention Visitors & Bureau, Howard College and Angelo State University provide alternative paths for us to address the issues communities face in the process of bringing businesses and development into their communities. Through this coalition we will strengthen our resources and effectiveness in the future of downtown San Angelo.

Del Velasquez, Executive Director

BOARD PRESIDENT, BRENDA GUNTER

Downtown San Angelo Inc. continues to celebrate the continued progress in the heart of the city, Historic Downtown.

Every year brings new people, new interest and creative ideas to diversify and broaden the scope of the downtown district.

In the recent "Progress" San Angelo section of the newspaper, owner of Myers Drug, Doug Chadwick stated, "now is a good time to be downtown. It is great to see construction going on throughout the downtown area". Doug feels that downtown businesses are in a good place and also stated "everywhere you turn or look, someone's building or renovating something somewhere downtown".

Our focus will continue to be broadening the scope of business and increasing the potential for further development.

Additionally, our focus will continue to be downtown living.

We know this is the area of development that will stabilize the rest of the downtown area. Meanwhile we are excited about the Roosevelt Hotel project. One major development will stimulate another development.

Growth and continued progress will happen in our Historic Downtown - one building, one block at a time.

Thank you for your support. And thank you for the support you give to our local businesses. We can never thank you enough for the ongoing enthusiasm - you, the community have given to all our energy and efforts.

VAULT DOOR RELOCATED ONCE AGAIN

As 1st Financial Bank staff prepare to move from the 301 W. Beauregard location to the new site on Concho Avenue, a long standing iconic vault door is first to be transported. This vault access entry has been a part of the bank's history beginning in 1927 when the vault was installed at the San Angelo National Bank location at 201 S. Chadbourne. Today, Trimble Batjer Insurance Associates occupy the building.

The door was moved in 1962/63 from the basement of that building up through the sidewalk and street. It was then installed at the 301 W. Beauregard site.

On Monday, March 27, 2017 at 5:00 pm the door was once again moved to the new bank building at the corner of Concho Ave. and Koenigheim. The crane used to move the vault door registered the weight of the door at 27,000 pounds.

Skilled crew prepare vault door for transport to newly constructed bank building on Concho Avenue.

The "Cannonball Safe" pictured above was located and utilized at the San Angelo National Bank Building once located at 26 E. Concho Ave. Today the building is home to Miss Hattie's Restaurant.

Downtown San Angelo Inc, (DSA) is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization, dedicated to the revitalization and preservation of historic downtown San Angelo. Additionally, we are a Texas Main Street Nationally recognized urban city and a National Trust of Historic Preservation member.

Established in 2004, Downtown San Angelo, Inc. was formed by a group of 35 individuals who were dedicated to downtown revitalization. In November 2005, the organization was granted membership in the Main Street Program. This program is a major effort by the National Trust for Historic Preservation to provide assistance to cities whose older central business districts are seeking to retain some vestige of their visual character and whose economic position is slipping. The premise of this program is that economic revitalization can take place within the context of historic preservation.

DSA enjoys broad-based public support for the revitalization process, with strong support from both public and private sectors. Wide-ranging community collective skills and resources are utilized to maximum advantage.
